UPSR talk for Year 6 pupils

SIBU: Universiti Utara Malaysia (UUM) Public Management students and the Parent-Teacher Association of SK Abang Amin, Bintangor will holding a UPSR motivational talk for Year 6 pupils of SK Abang Amin on Saturday.

Parents and teachers are involved in the event which will take place at the school hall.

A spokesperson for the organisers, Awang Julaih Awang Ali Bohan said that the progamme would begin at 8.00am and the speaker for the talk would be Ismadi Haji Johari.

Semop State Assemblyman and Chief Political Secretary to the Chief Minister, Abdullah Haji Saidol will officiate the programme.

Awang Julaihi, who is also the head of the degree students in Public Management at UUM, said the programme was part of their community service and social responsibility towards the community in Bintangor.

He added it also aimed to motivate the pupils who were sitting for the UPSR examination this year.

He said the group of UUM students would contribute a reference book and educational tools to help students involved in the programme.

He urged the pupils and their parents to turn up early and register at SK Abang Amin's hall in the morning.
